Saying Farewell

Conclusion and Close

*Ecclesiastes Chapter 3, Verse 1-8
"For Everything there is a Season"*

There is a time for everything,
And a season for every activity under heaven:
A time to be born and a time to die,
A time to plant and a time to uproot,
A time to kill and a time to heal,
A time to tear down and a time to build,
A time to weep and a time to laugh,
A time to mourn and a time to dance,
A time to scatter stones and a time to gather them,
A time to embrace and a time to refrain,
A time to search and a time to give up,
A time to keep and a time to throw away,
A time to tear and a time to mend,
A time to be silent and a time to speak.
A time to love and a time to hate.
A time for war and a time for peace.

A Gathering of Life

by Terah Cox

It is not just the passing of years
But the ripening wisdom of living
It is not just a toll taken
But a well of receiving and giving
It's not just the people come and gone
But the heart's many faces and forms.
Not just the winds of change and chance
But a weathering of stalls and storms
It is not just the luck of survival
But the brave conquering of strife
It is not, after all,
Just the passing of years
But a gathering of love and life.
